

Bresnahan-Halstead Center Research Policy and Application

The primary mission of the Bresnahan-Halstead Center is to work for the advancement of knowledge and quality service for individuals with disabilities and their families through research, evaluation, professional development, technical assistance, partnerships, and student scholarships/financial assistance.

Objective

Funds are available to provide research support for projects aligned with the mission of the Bresnahan-Halstead Center.

Guidelines

- An application needs to be submitted to and approved by the Director and the Director of Research and Evaluation of the Bresnahan-Halstead Center.
- Applications for research support funds can be submitted by faculty in the School of Special Education at the University of Northern Colorado or members of the Advisory Board.
- Evaluation of the research needs to occur and must be submitted to the Director of Research and Evaluation at the end of the project.
- If the number of requests for funding exceeds the available budget resources, a determination will be made with input from at least one Advisory Board member.

Applications for Research Support from the Bresnahan-Halstead Center Requires the Following Information:

- Name of Individual Submitting Application
- Title of the Project
- Rationale for the Study
- Brief Description of the Methodology
- Timelines
- Relation to the Mission
- Itemized Estimated Budget
- Evaluation