This four-year plan is a recommended schedule to complete your bachelor's degree in 4 years. Every UNC student must meet the following requirements in order to graduate with a bachelor's degree: earn a minimum of 120 semester credit hours; possess a minimum of a 2.00 cumulative grade point average; have at least 31 credit hours in courses designated as Liberal Arts Curriculum; meet all degree requirements in the student's major field of study. Each major and/or concentration may have additional requirements necessary for graduation. Students must consult with their major advisor to receive information on any additional graduation requirements.

Admission Requirement – None

Minor Required – Required. Minor will be waived in lieu of a double major.

Notes –

In addition to the required courses, each major will also take 24 additional hours of electives, 200 level or above.

a. At least three credits must be taken in each of the three geographic areas (Europe, United States, Africa/Asia/Latin America/World).

b. Of the remaining 15 hours, no more than 9 can be taken in any one of the the three geographic areas

c. At least 18 of the 24 hours must be taken from courses numbered 300 or 400.

History majors must obtain a grade of "C–" or better in all history courses taken at UNC. Majors receiving a grade of "D+" or lower in a history course must retake the course—or an equivalent approved by the academic advisor—and receive a grade of "C" or better to receive major credit

1. All history courses numbered 300 or higher include a research and writing component.
2. Only 6 hours of HIST prefixes may be counted toward the LAC.
3. History majors must complete a minor of at least 18 semester hours, or a second major, preferably within the College of Humanities and Social Sciences.
4. The study of foreign language is recommended for those majors who plan to pursue graduate study in history.
