Research in Progress

"Illustrating First-Year Students' Understanding of the Research Process" (On-Going).

This study qualitatively analyzes research process maps drawn by first-year students to uncover the knowledge and experiences that they bring to the information literacy classroom. We were invited to present a 3-hour pre-conference workshop at the 2019 LOEX Conference in Ypsilanti, MI in May.

"Student Success and Library Use" (On-Going).
IRAS gathered data on library use and student persistence fall 2017 to fall 2018. We submitted our manuscript Undergraduate Student Success and Library Use: A Multi-Method Approach. This peer-reviewed article will be featured in a special edition of College & Research Libraries to be published in April 2020. Our research group is continuing to explore future research opportunities.
