Office of the Provost

Dear Faculty Members,

I would like to extend a warm welcome to the 2023-2024 academic year. Thank you for all your past contributions. I look forward to seeing many of you over the coming days and working with you over the course of the year in pursuit of the Rowing, not Drifting 2030 goals that strive to create a more inclusive environment in which everyone in our community can thrive.

Please join me in congratulating your colleagues whose promotion and/or tenure was approved by the Board of Trustees in June 2023, and which takes effect now.

I also want to recognise your colleagues who have received a sabbatical for this year so that they may dedicate their time to more deeply engaging in scholarship, creative activities, professional growth, or so that they may revitalise the curriculum or learn more about pedagogy. We look forward to their return with fresh insights and perspectives to share.

Thank you for your dedication to the university and to the success of our students.

Best Regards,
Kirsty
