FAFSA Update

U.S. Department of Education Delays

All colleges and universities are experiencing delays and only a small portion of FAFSA data has been released on a limited basis to select schools.

Testing of data integrity began on April 15 for the transfer of FAFSA data to UNC. Initial offers are expected to begin on May 6.
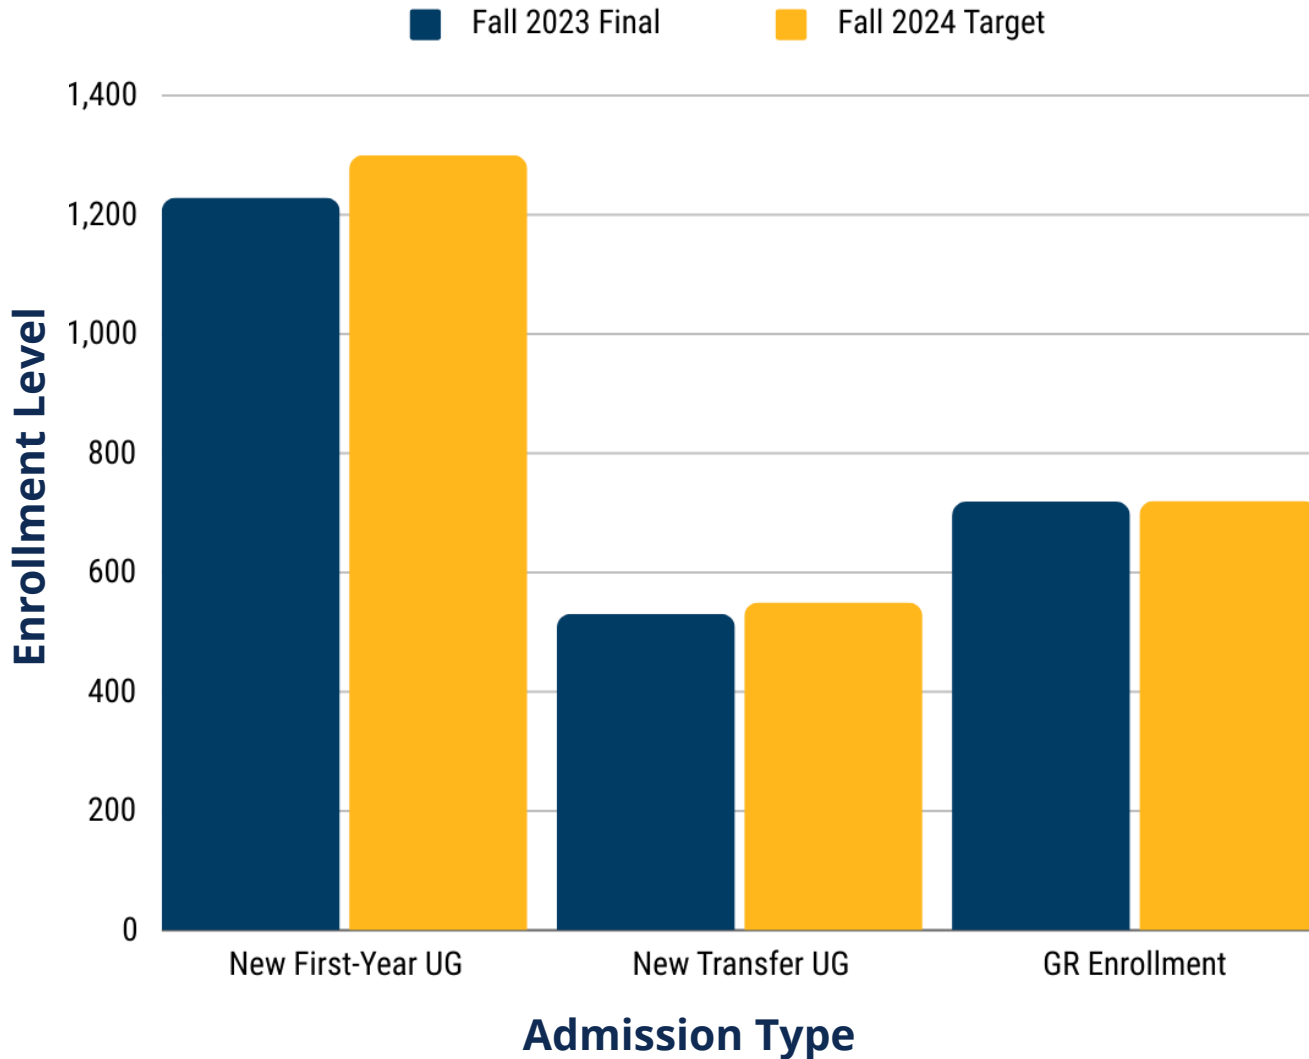

UNC Financial Aid Awarding Adjustments
- New FY Students notification will begin in May 2024.
- Current and Transfer Students – same schedule as prior years after grades are posted and likely sent in June 2024.
- Extended Scholarship deadline to May 15
- Extended the FAFSA priority deadline to June 1 (along with the tuition promise requirements)

Coalition of State University Aid Administrators (COSUAA) - The end of April is the earliest most public colleges and universities will be able to administer award letters based on current federal updates.
