Executive Summary

The FY25 forecast, based on results through the first fiscal quarter, projects an operating outflow of $1.3 million; however, this results in a $0.8 million cash increase once capital reserve transfers and balance sheet/timing changes are considered. The primary factors contributing to the projected shortfall include: 1) fall enrollment below budgeted projections, 2) decreased revenue from oil & gas and interest earnings, and 3) personnel expenditures which continue to trend higher than expected due to position changes and turnover rates continue to decline.

Net Student Revenue is projected to be $1.3 million, or 1.1%, less than the budget as overall FTE was less than expected. Undergraduate net tuition revenue is projected at $0.7 million less than the budget, with FTE projected to be 5,480 compared to a budget of 5,523, or a 0.8% shortfall. Graduate net tuition revenue is forecasted to be $0.3 million less than budget, with FTE projected to be 1,651 compared to the budget of 1,655, or a 0.2% shortfall. Room and Board net revenue, which is correlated to undergraduate enrollment, is forecasted to be $0.3 million less than budget, with residence hall paid equivalency forecasted at 61.0% compared to the budget of 61.8%. Finally, a projected decrease of $1.3 million in other operating revenue sources, primarily due to declining oil and gas revenue, interest revenue and application fee revenue, resulted in a Net Operating Revenue projected shortfall of $2.8 million.

Personnel expenses are projected to be $1.1 million over budget. Staff salaries are the primary factor for the projected increase as positions continue to be filled and turnover rates decline further.

Other changes in the balance sheet due to timing are projected to be $4.9 million more than budgeted, which offsets the projected operating result of ($5.6) million. The primary factor is yearend receivables from the state in FY24—the university only received 11 months of the Fee for Service payments with the final payment of $3.8 million received in FY25. The remaining $1.1 million is due to the receipt of various unbudgeted receivables from FY24 such as insurance reimbursements, vending payments, and FAMLI refunds.

Cash

Total cash, as of September 30, 2024, is $120.9 million, with $29.7 million in reserves (uncommitted cash).

Cash

The cash flow trend is relatively consistent as shown in Figure 2. The low point during the year traditionally occurs in mid-August and is a good point for benchmarking purposes. This is noted as “Low” in the graph.

The rise in cash during June 2024 (FY24) resulted from the deposit of $41.3 million in restricted escrow for the proposed College of Osteopathic Medicine. Cash with and without the escrow is presented for comparative purposes.

The timing of State payments in the Fall varies each year. In FY22 and FY25 the first three months’ Fee for Service payments were received in September, while in FY23 and FY24 the first four months’ payments were not received until October.

The increase in cash in October 2021 (FY22) is noteworthy as the month in which approximately $17 million in HEERF II and III grants were received, in addition to the typical increase related to the receipt of payments for student charges at the beginning of the fall term.

Operating Budget

Operating Budget Variances:

- Net Student Revenue: Forecast is $1.3 million less than budget. Undergraduate Net Tuition and Fee revenue is forecasted to be $0.7 million less than budget with projected FTE enrollment of 5,480, 0.8% less than the budgeted FTE enrollment of 5,523. Graduate Net Tuition and Fee revenue and Room and Board net revenue are each forecasted to be $0.3 million less than budget.
- Other Revenue: Forecast is $1.3 million less than budget. The primary factors are decreases of $0.3 million in oil and gas revenue, $0.4 million in interest income, and the remaining $0.6 million from various smaller sources of other revenue (orientation, application fees, service charges, etc.)
- Personnel Expenses: Forecast is $1.1 million more than budget. The primary factor is in Professional Administrative and Classified staff salaries that are forecasted to be $1.3 million over budget as vacant positions are refilled and staff turnover continues to decrease.
- Other Changes in Balance Sheet/Timing (Table 3): Forecast is $4.9 million more than budget. The majority, $3.8 million, is due to year end receivables from the state. UNC received the final FY24 fee for service payment in FY25. The remaining $1.1 million is due mainly to the receipt in FY25 of other unbudgeted receivables from FY24, such as insurance reimbursements, vending payments, and FAMILI refunds.

Multiyear Projects

The approved FY25 budget for Multiyear Projects was $3.6 million, which is the combination of newly authorized expenditures plus balances from previous fiscal year’s unexpired projects. The FY25 forecast is $3.7 million, or $0.2 million higher than budget.

Capital Projects

Although forecasted expenditures by fiscal year are provided for context, new projects of $10.9 million plus the proposed College of Medicine (COM) construction of $127.5 million were fully approved by the Board of Trustees and funded at the beginning of the fiscal year. The FY25 forecast (excluding COM) is $0.2 million less than budget, though the subset of UNC-funded projects are forecast at $0.6 million more than budget as several prior year projects carried forward into FY25.

Foundation/Donor Support

The two tables below include donor funds expended by UNC as opposed to funds raised by the Foundation. Funds are generally transferred from Foundation-managed accounts monthly after expenditures; however, capital projects are typically fully funded at the beginning of each project and expenses often cross multiple fiscal years.

Restricted Grants and Contracts

Restricted Grants and Contracts represent funding received from various external sponsors for research activities or student financial aid. The revenue is typically recognized as costs are recorded.
